ChamberFest Canandaigua Suzuki Play-In! Saturday, July 25, 2026

Come make music with us! We invite you to play side-by-side with Juilliard cellist and grown Suzuki kid Amy Sue Barston, celebrated concert pianist Audrey Andrist, and world-renowned violin professor and grown Suzuki kid Katie Lansdale. Violinists and cellists of all ages and levels will gather together to joyfully and spontaneously perform favorites from the beloved Suzuki repertoire. Aptly called the “Mother Tongue” method, the Suzuki philosophy treats music like a language, with each student building their musical “vocabulary” with the same pieces. Students at a Suzuki event are never really strangers, as they all know the same music; children from all over the world can play together and bond instantly, even if they have never met and come from vastly different backgrounds.

We will do this “play-down” style, starting from the most advanced pieces, and ending with Twinkle Twinkle Little Star.

MUSIC: Please see attached repertoire list.

Also included is the cello part to the Bach Double Concerto, if any cellists want to play along. They are welcome to use the music for this.

Memorization is highly encouraged, but students needing music should bring theirs and their own stand.

All ages welcome.

Students can start arriving at 10am to tune and positioning so rehearsal can start at 10:30

Attire: T-Shirts will be provided, black jeans/pants/skirts
